Test Overview	Methodology	Acceptance Criteria	Outcome
Growth Properties	Observation of cell culture behaviour to determine if cells are adherent, suspension, or semi-adherent	Cells exhibit expected growth properties consistent with the cell line's characteristics	Adherent
Sterility Testing	Sterility was assessed using microbiological methods suitable for cell culture products.	No aerobic microbial growth	Negative
Mycoplasma Testing	PCR-based detection assay with specific primers targeting Mycoplasma DNA	No detectable Mycoplasma contamination confirmed by PCR	Negative

Species-Specific Pathogen Testing	Pathogen	Result
